

Thirty Days of Maigret

Introduction:

During the month of December, I will upload the thirty episodes of Maigret by George Georges Simenon.

This is the complete series which was broadcast from 1976, and completed in 2004.

Attached are two pdfs which contain the program info. I will not re-upload these.

I created this series on CD in 2007, and uploaded it once before.

If anyone wishes to upload them elsewhere they are welcome to do so. A credit to SANWAL, would be appreciated.

1: Maigret Goes Home

Sat 21st Aug 1976, 18:15 on BBC Radio 4 FM

A series of plays based on the novels of Georges Simenon.

Translated by Robert Baldick and adapted for radio by Frederick Bradnum

With Maurice Denham as Jules Maigret and Michael Gough as Georges Simenon

with Brian Haines as Lucas and Sean Barrett as Janvier

Produced and directed by Glyn Dearman

Gautier: Cyril Shaps

Emile Gautier: Anthony Daniels

Priest: Michael Deacon

At the crack of dawn, on a raw morning, Chief Inspector Maigret finds himself in the church of Saint-Flacre, the village where he was born and raised. Two weeks before, a note had warned the police that at the first Mass on All Souls' Day a crime would be committed. This is a masterful tale of aristocrats fallen on hard times and of a profligate son who in the final hour finds unexpected strength of character.

2: Maigret in Montmartre

Sat 28th Aug 1976, 18:15 on BBC Radio 4 FM

An unusually quiet day for Inspector Maigret at the Quai des Orfèvres is disturbed by a visit from mild-mannered toy salesman Xavier Manton. Maigret is taken aback by Manton's revelation that he suspects his wife of plotting to poison him. And when he receives a visit from Madame Manton expressing her own grave concerns later that day, he finds himself deeply conflicted, unsure of whom to trust. Maigret heeds the advice of his seniors and begins investigating the couple—and with every turn, new complications arise. When the case comes to a boil and a body is discovered, everyone, including Maigret, is shocked.

Maigret's Doubts is an engrossing mystery of marriage and deceit.

4: Maigret in Society

First broadcast: Sat 11th Sep 1976, 18:15 on BBC
Radio 4 FM

Aubonnet: James Thomason

Abbac: Ralph Truman

Cromieres: Paul Meier

Maigret is called to the home of Armand de Saint-Hilaire, a highly respected diplomat who has been found by his housekeeper, shot dead in his study. Maigret is urged to be discrete in his investigation, but after interviewing everyone concerned, the inspector is at a loss to the identity of the perpetrator—until he comes across a series of letters spanning decades between the victim and a widowed woman. As Maigret uncovers the details behind the pair's relationship, he gets closer to discovering the tragic truth behind the official's demise.

With the pressure mounting, the inspector must navigate class divides and his own position in society to uncover the killer. Maigret and the Old People is an absorbing mystery and a thoughtful examination of the different worlds money creates.

Radio 4 FM

Adapted for radio by Edward Bruce, from the translation by Daphne Woodward

Leonie Birard, an old woman whom everyone in the village of Saint-Andre-sur-mer hated, was shot dead. Maigret found the villagers a closed community, determined to pin the murder on the local school-master - because he was a Parisian - not one of them. Even the schoolboys wouldn't talk...
